

Biological and Holistic

EQUINE Pasture Management - Consultancy and Education.

Global Land Repair offer powerful and effective consultancy service for land owners seeking Biological and Holistic Equine Pasture management using Permaculture principles and putting them into action on their land.

Empowering horse owners to increase the health of there horses through creating biodiversity in pastures and building soil carbon and water holding capacity.

Education in closing the input cycle loop for pasture management and supplementary feed. Designing horse forage systems, horse browsing pastures, introduction of herbage and natural feed selection by the horse.

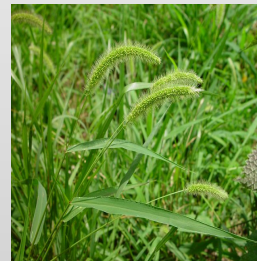

- Full farm design - Designing horse farm to supply and equine needs increase horse health and landscape diversity.

- Compost & Compost Tea - Education, Sales & Consultancy of the benefits of increasing soil fungi and microbes. Stopping and future chemical salt based fertilisers. Composting of stable waste into an income stream for your farm.

- Farm Hydrology - Drought proofing farms with the use of Swales on contour to slow water across the landscape and draw it under ground. The use of Keyline Plow to deep rip on contour and increase soil carbon and water holding capacity.

- Tree Systems & Horse forage Systems - Planting forage and tree systems through swales increase fertility buy falling leaves and branches and braking down with the help of soil microbes. Swales disperse this fertility evenly across the paddocks and into the ground.

- We as designers and land managers are here for you and mentors and consultants through your journey of restoring landscape fertility and in decreasing your dependence on high COST, high INPUT Equine farm management. Giving you an edge in the horse market.

Meet the Consultant:

Nick Huggins is a certified Permaculture teacher and design consultant. He has a extensive background in horticulture, landscape design and construction.

Nick consults for Global Land Repair and provides powerful and effective services for land owners seeking biological and holistic (equine) pasture management using Permaculture principles and putting them into action through education to horse owners on their land.

He teaches various pasture management and farm design courses. Nick writes articles for the Horses and People Magazine ( www.horsesandpeople.com.au ) and Permaculture Research Institute of Australia ( www.Permaculture.org.au ).

- Full or half day consultations to education workshops for working Equine Studs.

